

—F. M. Troch, of Vancouver, Wash., new international wingshot champion, shooting 94 out of 100 live pigeons at a recent Kansas City tournament.
W. M.—K. C. Post

Uncle Sam's gigantic new postal and transcontinental aerial freighter under construction at College Point, L. I. Here are some facts about this latest world's largest—106 ft. wing spread, 54 ft. long, 18 ft. high, powered with three 400 h. p. Liberty twelves, fully loaded weighs five tons, cargo capacity of 7,600 lbs., estimated speed 120 miles an hour, carries crew of four, two pilots, wireless operator and engineer. See it at the Aero Show.
Underwood

—A characteristic photo of Admiral Peary, discoverer of the North Pole, who died Feb. 20 in Washington, of anæmia, at the age of sixty-four.
International

Narberth, Pa., presents something new in the way of winter sports. Ski-bobs they're called, and they are made by the children themselves.
Ledger Photo

London has policewomen, too—but they've gone New York one better by organizing a special motorcycle sidecar squadron operated by expert women drivers primarily for the purpose of rescue work at fires and accidents.
Underwood

Charles E. Hughes presents Herbert Hoover with the gold medal of the Civic Forum bestowed for notable public service. This coveted medal has been conferred only three times before—on Thomas A. Edison, George W. Goethals and the late Admiral Peary.
International

Two of the prominent ones at the recent opening of the unofficial G. O. P. State Convention at Carnegie Hall—Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and Senator James A. Wadsworth.
International

Miss Amelia Fowler, Boston's own Betsy Ross, who as America's most expert needlemaid is kept busy repairing historic flags for Uncle Sam. The silk used by Miss Fowler was left to her by her grandmother and some of it is centuries old.
Kabel & Herbert

The ex-Kaiser's onetime palatial yacht Meteor, on which he took frequent pleasure cruises, leaving Liverpool on her first trip since flying the Allied flag.
Underwood

